

Citizen of the Year

The Eureka Days Committee is accepting nominations for the 2018 City of Eureka Citizen of the Year. This award recognizes residents who make outstanding contributions to the community and continue to make Eureka a wonderful place to live, work and visit.

The following are the guidelines for selecting the recipient of this honorable designation. The award will consist of a plaque to be presented by the Mayor of Eureka at the Eureka Days event. The Citizen of the Year will also be invited to participate in the Eureka Days Parade and in an awards ceremony on Saturday, September 8, 2018.

Guidelines

1. Nominees must reside in the greater Eureka area and must be nominated for the award by a resident from the greater Eureka area.
2. Nominations must be submitted by completing the attached application.
3. The Eureka Days Committee will review all nominations and select the recipient of the award.
4. The person selected as Citizen of the Year will be notified one month prior to the event.
5. Eureka Days Committee members will not be eligible for the award.
6. Nominations are due by July 31, 2018.
